Philippine wedding programs

Philippine wedding programs as well as sample wedding programs that might inspire you!

Having trouble making a Filipino wedding program for your big day? Look no further! In this article, we give you step-by-step Filipino wedding ceremony programs as well as sample wedding programs that might inspire you! The Filipino Wedding Ceremony There are two common Filipino wedding ceremony programs: Traditional and Catholic. Read on to find out more about both.
PS: Make sure to invite your ninongs and ninangs!
Nondenominational Wedding Ceremony By Charles A. Pickup on Pexels
This Filipino wedding program is for those who want a non-religious ceremony.
1. The Processional This signals the official start of the ceremony. The groom walks in, followed by his best man, then the groomsmen paired with the bridesmaids. Then comes the maid of honor, ring bearer, and flower girl. Finally, make sure to stand up for the bride, who is usually accompanied by one or both parents.
2. Opening Remarks Once everyone has found their place, whoever is officiating the wedding says a few welcoming words to the couple, the wedding party, and the guests.
3. Readings This step is optional. Following the opening remarks, assigned guests may read prayers, passages from novels, poems, or even meaningful quotes.
4. Unity Candle This is a common part of nondenominational weddings. Together, the couple lights a candle while the officiant narrates how it acts as a symbol of commitment and unity.
5. Unifying Ritual Following this, a unifying ritual can be done. What’s great about a nondenominational wedding is this ritual can be anything! It’s totally up to you and your partner! Some creative ideas include pouring sand, making a time capsule, or even planting a tree.
6. Exchange of Vows The exchange of vows is one of the most beautiful parts of a wedding. Being a nondenominational ceremony, there are no rules for what your vows should be like. Your vows can be personalized or memorized, or you can ask the officiant to ask the timeless questions of whether you take your partner to be your spouse in sickness and in health, etc.
7. Exchange of Rings Put a ring on it! After you say your vows, you exchange rings with your partner.
8. The Kiss You may now kiss the bride! Congratulations, newlyweds!
9. The Recessional The wedding party then exits by walking down the aisle, led by the newlyweds and their families. Now it’s time for another headache entirely, the reception!
Catholic Wedding Ceremony By Donn on Pexels
A Catholic wedding ceremony is always held in a church. Nowadays, couples might have two ceremonies - one in a church and one elsewhere. That is because Catholic weddings are often in the form of a mass. Here’s a Filipino wedding program for the Catholics looking to celebrate their faith and love:
1. The Processional Just like a nondenominational wedding, the groom, the wedding party, and then finally, the bride walk into the ceremony. However, unlike a nondenominational wedding, the priest walks in first. When he reaches the altar, that’s when everyone follows.
2. Entrance Rites Just like in any mass, the entrance rites are read.
3. Readings and the Gospel Following this, two readings (one from the Old Testament, one from the New) and the holy Gospel are read. This would be based on the Church’s liturgical calendar in a regular mass. However, at your wedding, you get to choose which readings and Gospel passages are read.
4. Homily Next, everyone sits while the priest gives a sermon that relates to marriage, love, and commitment, and to the readings and the Gospel passage that you chose.
5. Rite of Marriage This is equivalent to the exchange of vows in a nondenominational ceremony. The Catholic Church has a specific set of vows that you could either memorize or read from a book. Another option is to have the priest read them out for you as you respond “I do.”
6. Ring Ceremony During the ring exchange, the priest will bless the union with a prayer and holy water. As the couple exchanges rings with one another, they also recite a prayer.
7. Offertory, Liturgy of the Eucharist, Lord’s Prayer, Sign of Peace, Holy Communion Like in any mass, the Offertory, Liturgy of the Eucharist, Lord’s Prayer, Sign of Peace, and Holy Communion follow.
8. The Kiss This will be one of the few times when kissing in a church is permitted! The priest announces, “You may now kiss the bride,” and the couple have their magical moment.
9. Nuptial Blessing The priest closes the mass with a blessing, marking the end of the wedding ceremony.
10. The Recessional The priest, the newlyweds, their families, and the wedding party walk down the aisle. Samples Many choose to print their wedding programs to act as a guide on their wedding day and to keep them as a memento for them and their guests to look back on fondly. They will typically include the order of events of the ceremony, wedding party list to help guests get to know who is who, musical selections, readings, explanations of any ceremony or cultural traditions that not everyone might know about and a thank-you note to guests. Additional messages like important reminders for example, “no photo-taking” or directions to the reception venue or even messages in memory of loved ones who could not attend your big day may also be included. Lastly, printed wedding programs usually have personal touches like your wedding logo, hashtag, or monogram and a lovely picture of you and your partner. Here are some samples of gorgeous wedding programs!

Like any other wedding programs around the world, printing Filipino wedding programs is entirely optional, but if your program is long or complex, then you’ll most likely need to print something out so everyone can follow along. SOURCES

You can also honor your traditions that may be part of your ceremony. In addition, you’ll want to consider how you want people who enter the ceremony space well as the officiant. Writing your own script can initially seem daunting, but it does ensure that you provide options so all your guests can enjoy the meal and feel included in the event. Communicate clearly with them before the event and make sure they know their needs will be taken care of! When planning a wedding, couples may have restrictions on photography or videography during the ceremony. This can be for many reasons, such as wanting to maintain the privacy of guests or keeping the focus on the couple and their vows. It’s important to consider this when putting together a wedding program script and flow. Some couples may want to limit photography and videography during certain moments, such as when they’re exchanging vows or other more intimate parts of the ceremony. However, having a few professional photographers and videographers on hand can help to capture those special moments without distracting them. They can also provide additional guidance on where to place cameras so that they are not intrusive while still providing beautiful shots of the ceremony. For guests who want to take photos and videos during the ceremony, it is important to respect any restrictions put in place by the couple. Guests should be aware of what is permissible before taking out their phones or cameras in order to avoid disrupting the moment or making anyone feel uncomfortable. Additionally, it’s important for guests to respect any time limitations set for taking photos or videos so that everyone can enjoy the event without disruption. It is up to each couple whether they would like to allow photography and videography during their wedding ceremony. If done in an unobtrusive way with proper consideration for all guests, having some limited documentation of this special moment can help couples preserve memories for years after their big day has passed. We hope this article has helped you plan the perfect wedding program script and flow. From deciding what your wedding party should wear to accommodating special dietary needs, there are a lot of details that need to be considered when planning an event like this. It’s important to consider the budget and allocate enough time for the reception. Remember that both sets of parents need to be involved in the planning process as well as the venue. We hope you have a wonderful wedding day and a happy marriage. Congratulacions on your upcoming nuptials! We wish you all the best on this very special day! 0 ratings0% found this document useful (0 votes)1K viewsThe wedding program outlines the events of the ceremony and reception, including introductions of wedding party members, parents, and sponsors, ceremonial dances and traditions like the cake...
