Naruto game Senki is a game that can be played on a smartphone device with Android operating system. This game is also light enough, so players who do not have a device with high specifications can still play comfortably. At the beginning of the game, the player will be asked to choose the reproduction mode provided. Then, the player can choose the character of the game according to him. These characters have different abilities with others. The capacity of owner of the character in the game of Naruto Senki is the same as the version of Animeen. Each character is generally equipped with 3 skills or jutsu. However, sometimes there are unique characters who have up to 6 capacities. The player will be given a frog battalion that will help him destroy the enemy tower. These troops will be out continuously until the game ends. Every one destroys a tower success, the capacity of the frog forces will increase significantly. After the three enemy towers have been successfully destroyed, the game will end. And this also applies the opposite. Hardcore mode includes in the game mode contained in the Naruto Ninja Senki game both the original version and the mod. In the original version, hardcore mode opens the opportunity to open the character that is still blocked. Therefore, the characters that can be used will be more and more varied. For the mod version, hardcore mode is not too useful. Because, all the characters are automatically opened. However, this mode is still exciting and tense. To be able to play in hardcore mode, players must have a minimum of 3 characters who won the match over 15 times. At the beginning Hardcore mode will be blocked. After three of these characters are collected, this mode can only be used. Gameplay in hardcore mode is not very different from the usual way. However, the challenge is much more difficult. Moreover, after the second destroyed enemy tower, a Jinchuriki character will turn into a beast and protect the tower.
