Possessive nouns exercises for class 5

Definition: A noun is a part of the speech used to name a person, a place, a thing, a quality or an action. Examples: Mango, girl, boy, cat, etc. Any name given to a person, thing, animal or place is called a noun. The nouns are words used to refer to objects, places and living things. Some names also refer to feelings and emotions. This grammar section explains English grammar in a clear and simple way. There are sample phrases to show how language is used. Exercise on the possessive nouns for class 5 CBSE with PDF responses Foundations Case possessive: When a name or a pronoun is used to indicate the property or possession, the authority, etc., They say it's in the possession case. For example: This is Rohit's bike. When the noun is singular, the possessive case consists of the addition of "yes" (apostrophe "yes") to the noun and when the plural noun ends with a "yes", we put only one apostrophe after the "yes" to form its possessive case. Examples: Single Possessive Multiple Possessive Boy Boy Boy s Boys Books Books Books Girls Girls Girls Girls Girls Men's Girls You Yours Parents Parents 80 80s 2009 2009 2009 It's Who Who Who Who Who Apostrophe Who or No Apostrophe After the noun ends with "S" "s", the possessive form may have an apostrophe (s) or only an apostrophe (s) at the end. Examples: This is a portrait of King Charles's wife. This is a portrait of King Charles's wife. My uncle, James's factory, was burned down last night. My uncle, James's factory, was burned down last night. Two possessive names one after the other Sometimes, two possessive names that appear one after the other may be necessary to indicate the double property. Examples: she's Vicky's brother's girlfriend. This is Radhika's father's car. Apostrophe The co-ownership when two names are co-owners, only the second name is in the possessive form of an apostrophe and á ě œâîâîsÁ e âîâîÂî. Examples: On that hill there is Jack and e house. (The house belongs to both Jack and Payal and Payal's mother is a doctor. Compound possessive nouns If it's an iphenated compound noun, add the apostle (ás) to the last word.
