People give 1 star because they can't read. First things it says, This is an app to see what is out there. It's for watching trailers. That's it's very first thing that it says and it does that pretty well. I would rate it as a 4 though. It has room to grow. I do not think these people can read lol. Under the name of the app you can see "Watch trailers." There is also a picture of the app saying that. It is a good app, the quality of the trailers was good. You did not have to pay for movies because you can't watch them. Tbh I was confused why people gave 1 star on this App saying "oh we can't Watch the Movies. This is the worst App" Oi Read the Flipping Title it says it's for () ( ) The developer, Rounding Squares BV, indicated that the app's privacy practices may include handling of data as described below.
