Where is sector 7 last day on earth.

in: Location, Multiplayer Source 44 Description II Muro. Sector 7 is that players in the area have to go through the gateway port, to enter the multiplayer sections of the game, which from Beta v1.8 includes only the cluster of anomalies, in Beta v.1.11.2 the cluster of anomalies replace the infectious waste. Jack's pump is also out of the wall. Place is not available. Please update the application. Beta v.1.11.6 and externally, a transport belt and a port of delivery similar to those found in pirate exchanges at the lobby level in Bankar Alpha and the Blackport police. A terminal at the gateway door needs to be repaired for the first time that can be reached. Outside the wall, a surveillance station similar to the Ponker Alpha and Bunker Bravo station appeared, but access to the small inspection room was not possible. (Note: The cost of the materials required is very high for the initial release of Beta v. 1.8 as a traffic control measure with a revision of the server capacity. We recommend that nothing enter the entry gate. I write about the Port of Law (Sector 7, Army Restriction Zone) of the Inner Air Wall 7 which contains a closed space inside the gate door where the player must place a suit before the inner room of the Airlines. I also wrote Sector 7. The inner room was added to the ground in Beta v. 1.10.2. The inner room contains the power trainer and a terminal station of the scientific mission after giving access to power weapons. He's gonna ask you to stop some outbreaks for an hour of critical damage to a weapon that disrupted the energy trainer in Beta against 1.11.2, and a damaged electrical shield message. In this room a deposit with 5 slots and a storage station with 4 slots has been added with: Hazmat Helmet Hazmat Jack e tin: Location, Multiplayer View source 44 Description The Wall. Sector 7 is the area that players must pass through, via the gateway, to enter the multiplayer sections of the game, which from Beta v1.8 only includes the grouping of anomalies, in Beta v.1.11.2 the grouping of anomalies replace the infected lands. The Jack pump is also beyond the wall. Location not available. Please update the application. Beta v.1.11.6 Exterior Exterior, there is a conveyance belt and a delivery port similar to those of the coupon exchange at the hall level in Bunker Alfa, and Blackport PD. There is a Gateway Door terminal in need of repair for the first time it is accessible. On the outside of the wall, a control station similar to that of Bunker Alfa and Bunker Bravo appeared, but the tiny control room cannot be reached.

(Note: The cost of the required materials was very high for the initial version of Beta v1.8 as a traffic control measure during the server capacity review. We suggest you do not put any element in the access door first.) Writing on the door reads, "Sector 7, restricted area of the army." Interior Airlock Airlock Wall. Area 7 includes an unlocking space just inside the Gateway door, in which the player must put on a combination before accessing the inner room. Airlock also wrote Sector 7. A trap-door was added on the floor in Beta v.1.10.2 Inner Chamber Inner Chamber The inner room contains the Power Armor and a Scientific Mission terminal. After giving the Power Armor, you can enter the restricted area and walk to the cluster of anomalies. There's a computer terminal in this room. Every 24 hours, a short mission is available. He will ask you to stop some outbreaks in exchange for an hour of critical damage with a weapon. The Power Armor has been disabled in Beta v.1.11.2, message "Power armor is damaged". A storage with 5 slots was added in this room, and a storage terminal with 4 slots with: Hazmat Helmet Hazmat Jacket There's an elevator to access Bunker. Sector 7 (Clan Base), this part was added to Beta v.1.10.2, you must join the clan to access the bunker. There is no behaviour in these areas. The helicopter's not allowed.

Access to inventory, basketball and attacks is now excluded in sectors 7 and multi-user areas. Class IV The true friend of the Sobaki cannot pass this territory; They'll land to wait for their people at the airfield. Established in Beta v1.8, removed in Beta v.1.11.7 Home GameDemandes guardiennes, Last Day on the Land of Sector 7, Home GameDemandes guardiennes, Last Day on the Land of Branch 7 Magazine in: Location, Multi-Use Source 44 Description of the Wall. Sector 7 was changed to Beta v.1.11.7, now it's Camp. Sector 7. It's a multi-user area where players can find other members in their clan. Survivor is there and will give you assignments every 20 hours for various awards that include weapon modifications, tactical backpacks and skills. Personal storage is also available for sector 7 equipment, which currently supplies 5 slots for storage. The term for access to the other four areas of sector 7 is here. From Beta v.1.11.10, you can play with your friends, inviting them to your group. Name player and player code example: Player#2019. Max 3 players, you're two friends. The clan repository was also added with five machine guns in Stockman Pete. Clan members can exchange objects. Wall. Sector 7 before Beta v.1.11.7 Temporary storage was added to Beta v.1.12.1 with 60 slots. This box can only be used by players who are members of the Clan from Beta v.1.12.3. You can no longer keep objects, you can only take your subjects. Take all your items, because this box will be removed at Beta v.1.14.1. " From this safe, you can take things before. In the future, the trunk will be removed, and all the precious items left inside will be removed. Locations In Beta v.1.12.3 the Oupost was added, it is a new location within Sector 7, only for Clan members. You can assemble storage and jobs to create new elements: This place resets every 3 days, all items are removed and workstations are damaged their need to rebuild them. The radioactive storm is a temporary function can be removed in a future update.

Revenue Tasks Stranger will provide players for 15 days 3 daily tasks that will end up providing players with different types of rewards. Among the tasks are Steel Spear, Old Revolver, MP5K, Bandagen, various types of armor, and fight Ashy Zombies, Ashy Runners, Ashy Spitters, Ashy Bloaters, and defeat the Devorer. Results 0/intelligence - 0/10 Level 5 - 0/10 Kill Ashy Zombies - 0/15 Find Hazmat Pants - 0/1 Find Hazmat Jacket - 0/1 Level 7 Find the gang - 0/20 Find Steel Kope - 0/3 Find Hazmat Helm - 0/1 Kill Sphyitters - 0/5 Door of the Gate, like Stan 7, need to renovate the gate first.

The tiger game can be like an eagle. They'll do everything they can to get their shoes before taking precautions, their strategy is to let you fight the zombies, and they're gonna pull the box instead of you, try to coordinate with friends or clan colleagues to get some zombie-groves while one player pulls the chest and turns. It will save you from time and guns, just make sure you come with the gangs because of the pressure of a few players, you really can't work as an electrician. To avoid radiological damage, or you need a full ribbon suit or full shielding, you can't mix parts of these two groups, they're incompatible. Spend some time to say hello to other players, maybe you'll have new friends to get multilateral areas and coordinate, but when you need time to get to your chest. So just do it if you care more about your friends than your breasts if you die in one of the four areas of sector 7 when you cut it down. You re-establish in Sector 7, not your base. For a specific search, a belt hat, do it with one of your clan colleagues who goes in the same area with you (coordinated entrance), meet in a selected place and die in the field. So, you can cut your body for what you need to complete the search. You can return your things in Trivia introduced in Beta v.1.11.7, removed in Beta v.1.16.3 Gallery April 14, 2023 (2 weeks ago) the last day on Earth: survival in a hostile environment where there is a world where there is the same need and hunger that the last day rebirth the just dose of the Earth. Its impressive points are its manufacturing, level and cell systems, but its rewards and activity are worthwhile. It also allows players to work together to build rules or raid others in order to provide additional resources and survival materials. The outside world and the places of the world of the past day on Earth are designed as a public world and players will have to spend time or rest if they want to change every place and place on the map carefully designed, given the diversity of resources, food, minerals and the environment. Some dangerous sites like blacks and more are also good places to find manufactured material or climb through countless zombie battles. SIMPLE AND INTRIGUING SURVIVAL GAMEPLAY, although the game adopts a way up to down, control mechanics and features stimulate the element of real survival. During survival, the player must gather different things to improve the quality of life, such as wood, iron, varieties and even cut all zombies when they get to the base. Not only this, but they must also enter new lands and find more advanced materials for the manufacture of modern weapons and equipment. BUILD THE STURDIEST BASE The Basic Mechanism is the most innovative and outstanding from the last day on Earth, allowing players to design their habitats in different ways. Through the base, the player may also improve the countless quantities of materials and provide details for processing or manufacture. They can also improve all facilities, facilities and walls with better materials instead of new ones, even by stationing furniture or stations for house diversity. Although there is no system of skills or anything in the game, every player who has made progress over time has been unlocked. All instruments or weapons have progress and different levels, including the development of articles or materials. The system also provides users with access to new and more modern handicraft stations that help them process more awards and more ingredients. DEEP AND DARK BUNKER Bunkers are regarded as exclusive landings of the last day on Earth, where real problems arise when the player moves deeper into the ground. However, all progress is automatically rebuilt in a week, so the deeper the player, the more rewards it receives. The bunkers will also be the first to present new types of monsters to make the game more exciting and intensive when players get their hands on new weapons. Trade and trade are the family activities of the remaining buyers of the post-pocalyptic world, but they never give the players the necessary things.

All traders are random, but highly valued and can only remove some unique elements from the plane crash. During the adventures in the world, players will sometimes see big accidents, and this is a lot of mining that comes with absolute danger. Last day on Earth promises to bring an increasingly interesting content to the post-apocalyptic genre of survival. In addition a coop function that allows everyone to work together to develop strong survival communities and have exciting adventures in new countries.
